

NEW MEMBER ORIENTATION

Applicants to the Greater Nashville Association of REALTORS® must attend the GNAR New Member Orientation Session within 90 Days of submitting their applications. If an applicant fails to meet this requirement and does not contact the Association to request an extension, the application becomes void, forfeiting both the application fee and application. The applicant must then reapply and pay another $200 nonrefundable application fee.

Orientation is approved for six (6) credit hours of continuing education. The orientation course will appear on your Tennessee Real Estate Commission record as Code of Ethics – 3 hours, and Risk Management – 3 hours.
